

Holy Innocents Speaker Series Presents:

People, Look East:

The History and Traditions of the Eastern Catholic Churches

Explanatory: Few people know that the Catholic Church is actually a family of 23 churches in full communion with one another, and united in faith and charity with the pope. While the Roman Catholic Church is by far the largest of these communities of faith, Eastern Catholics make up smaller but by no means any less ancient or Catholic churches, with their own historic rites, liturgies and cultures that date to the time of the apostles.

When: Sunday, March 11, 2018 at 7:30pm

Where: Holy Innocents Church
431 Bedford Road
Social Hall

Guest Speaker: Deacon Greg Kandra

Deacon Greg Kandra is the Multimedia Editor for the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA). Before coming to the CNEWA, Deacon Greg spent three decades in broadcast journalism, mostly at CBS as a writer and producer for several programs including: "48 Hours," "60 Minutes," "Sunday Morning," and the "CBS Evening News with Katie Couric." He was also the founding editor of Katie Couric's blog, "Couric and Company." He also co-wrote the CBS documentary "9/11" hosted by Robert DeNiro.

Deacon Greg has received every major award in broadcasting, including 2 Emmys, 2 Peabody Awards and 4 awards from the Writer's Guild of America. Along with numerous essays and spiritual writings, he has a popular blog, "The Deacon's Bench."