Liturgy Notes— Sunday, July 7, 2024

The people of Christ's "native place" cannot see how his humble origins are compatible with his wisdom and mighty deeds. Because they are "sated with contempt," and lack faith, they close themselves off to the astonishing works he would do within each of them. Saint Paul, however, turns to Jesus in humility because of the thorn in his flesh, even boasting gladly of his weakness. For "power is made perfect in weakness." The unashamed acknowledgment of our weakness opens us to eagerly welcome Christ, whose grace is sufficient for us

Entrance Antiphon

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

Collect

O God, who in the abasement of your Son have raised up a fallen world, fill your faithful with holy joy, for on those you have rescued from slavery to sin you bestow eternal gladness. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Communion Antiphon

Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

Thank you Fr. Leo!

Join us on Sunday, July 28 for a thank you-reception following the 11:00 Mass in honor of Fr. Leo Camurati OP, as he prepares for his new assignment in St. Louis Bertrand Church, Louisville, KY.

For the summer we have changed the mass setting to the Mass of Christ the Savior written by Dan Schutte. This setting is in our Breaking Bread hymnal and we have used it many times.

Dan Schutte is one of the best known composers of church music and his works include City of God, Here I Am Lord and Sing a New Song. Dan holds two Master's degrees, one in Theology, and one in Liturgy. He also did graduate studies in Music composition at Seattle University. He has been awarded four honorary Doctoral degrees for his contribution to the life of the church. Most weekends he can be found on the road working at parish missions, retreats, or workshops or any opportunity to help people connect with the God who loves them and calls them by name.

Dan Schutte's music reflects his knowledge of and deep love for Sacred scripture. He wrote this mass setting with the intention to reach people's hearts and draw them into prayer. He also wanted to create a setting that parishes could use with many instruments, single piano or guitar, or simply acapella. We look forward to your participation in singing it with us this summer!

OFFICE OF THE CARDINAL
1011 FIRST AVENUE
NEW YORK, NY 10022

July 7, 2024
Month of the Precious Blood of Jesus

Dear friends in the Lord:

Currently serving happily as president of the board of directors of the Black and Indian Mission Office, I write today to offer thanks for last year's support of $258,334, and to ask for your generosity again as we prepare to collect an offering on Sunday, July 14 for the Catholic Missions among Black and Indian People. Established as the first national collection in 1874, it has proven itself to be a successful vehicle to provide for the needs of our African American, Native American, and Alaska Native brothers and sisters.

Your participation will provide the presence of missionaries in parishes, schools, religious education programs and many diocesan projects that strengthen the work of the gospel. Your partnership places bibles and catechetical materials, as well as food, shelter, and medical care, in the hands of priests, consecrated men and women and lay leaders where evangelization efforts are multiplied a thousand-fold. I count on your usual generosity. When you contribute, you join with other Catholics in solidarity with the needy.

Your help with the Catholic Missions among Black and Indian People will assist in making a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters in these communities throughout the United States. You can learn more at www.blackandindianmission.org and help us invite all peoples to open the door of faith and begin the journey of a lifetime.

With prayerful best wishes for a blessed summer to you and your families, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

+

Archbishop of New York

Religious Education

The Religious Education Program welcomes the summer season!

This is a time when schedules calm down, people go on vacation, and life slows to a more relaxed pace.

Since summer also means we aren't together in our formal classes, we thought this was a perfect time to introduce an addition to our "We Lift Up our Hearts" board in the Social Hall to keep you thinking about your faith, Jesus, the celebration of Mass, and things you may have heard in class but wanted to know more about.

Each weekend we will have something new for you to read and we hope it will strengthen your love and understanding of the Mass and your Catholic Faith. There will also be a question box on the table for you to ask for more information on something you are curious about.

Look for the "Did you Know" section on the bulletin board, and keep learning!
