PASTOR'S GREETING—Fr. Luke Hoyt, O.P.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you.

On this Trinity Sunday, we thank our God for revealing the mystery of his inner life to us, so that we may know Him not only as our Lord, but as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. By our baptism, you and I have been plunged into this inter-personal mystery, and the whole drama of our lives is a matter of us coming to know more and more deeply these three Persons.

A few notes:

- Thank you to all who joined us for our Block Party two weeks ago. It was such a joy to be with you on this occasion of our May Crowning. A big thank you to our Parish Council President Tim Kelley who headed the organization of the event and to all our volunteers who assisted with the food, activities, games, music, and setup – and to our First Communicants who led us in the Crowning.
- I invite you to our next Parish Study Series, which is launching Thursday June 15th. We are devoting this series to the mystery of the Eucharist, and it will be a tremendous opportunity for us to come to a deeper understanding of that Sacrament which is the source and summit of our Faith. Thank you to Fr. Philip and Br. Benedict who will be leading this series. I look forward to seeing you there.
- Finally, this is our final weekend with Fr. Ken on our parish staff as well as our first week with Fr. Philip as our new parochial vicar. I am so grateful for Fr. Ken's contributions to our parish throughout the last year and I am thrilled to welcome Fr. Philip. Please join us for a reception following the 11am Mass this Sunday (6/4) to thank them for their service to our parish.

The recessional hymn for this weekend's celebration of the Most Holy Trinity is the traditional hymn of praise, Holy God We Praise Thy Name. It was written in German in 1771 by Ignaz Franz, and is a paraphrase of the Latin Christian hymn, Te Deum.

Ignaz Franz was born in Poland and studied Philosophy and Theology before being ordained a Roman Catholic Priest in 1742. He wrote hymn lyrics and compiled religious music in addition to his position as the Assessor for Theological Affairs at the Apostolic Vicariate in Poland.

The original German, Grosser Gott, wir loben dich, was translated to English by Clarence Augustus Walworth in 1858. Translators are hymn writers too and contribute greatly to the library of hymns used in Christian worship. These writers have the challenge of translating the words, while honoring the content with language that fits the metrical rhythm of a pre-existing tune. Clarence Walworth considered a vocation as an Episcopal priest, but followed his father's desire for him to become an attorney. He passed the bar, but soon abandoned law, moved to New York and became a Roman Catholic priest. He is one of the founding members of the Order of Paulists.

We thank these two Catholic priests for the memorable melody and theme of one of the most popular hymns in dioceses around the world.

June 4, 2023
Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Dear friends in the Lord:

Parishes across the country are preparing to collect an offering for the Church in Latin America and The Catholic Home Missions Appeal on June 11. Here in the archdiocese, these two collections have been combined into one. I ask for your support with these vital requests.

In Latin America, because of generous people like you, many pastoral projects are reinforced both there and in the Caribbean. For the past fifty years, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops [USCCB] has helped 25 countries in Central and South America, and the Caribbean confront challenges to the faith and raise people from poverty.

Your aid to the Catholic Home Missions will assist in making a difference in the lives of our brothers and sister right here in the United States by strengthening the Church in our own backyard. Four out of ten dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered "home mission" dioceses with small Catholic populations, limited financial resources, vast and often difficult terrain, and a shortage of priests and religious. Despite the challenges, the communities continue to grow in faith to serve God and neighbor and form the next generation of faithful disciples.

I count on your usual generosity again, and thank you for your donation of $250,910 in 2022 which was divided equally between the two concerns. For promotional material, you may visit either of these websites, <https://www.usccb.org/news/2023/us-bishops-annual-collection-church-latin-america> and <http://www.usccb.org/home-missions>.

With prayerful best wishes to you and your families, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

†Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

Liturgy Notes-Sunday June 4

The Catechism teaches that "by sending his only Son and the Spirit of Love in the fullness of time, God has revealed his innermost secret: God himself is an eternal exchange of love, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and he has destined us to share in that exchange" (221). By worshipping the Trinity we realise the full truth of ourselves. "The three persons are one truth" (Saint Augustine). This truth is the saving truth of God's own life, which we begin to live on earth by the gift of faith. "The complete Trinity dwells in us" (Father Marie Michel Philipon, o.p. (God reveals the fullness of his very self to us that we "may not be lost but may have eternal life", and that we might be received as his own. I

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love

Collect (Opening Prayer)

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Communion Antiphon

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

Religious Education

The Religious Education program wishes Fr. Ken Letoile O.P., a very fond farewell as he moves to his next assignment in Washington, D.C. The children were blessed with Fr. Ken's presence at our events, and liturgies throughout the school year. Fr. Ken visited the classrooms, led the daily prayer and found opportunities to greet and speak with our students whenever he could.

We are also grateful for Fr. Ken's presence and assistance at our sacramental celebrations of First Reconciliation, Confirmation and Communion this year.

Thank you Fr. Ken for enriching our program and endeavors as well as our parish with your wisdom, your kindness, and your gentle, loving manner. We will miss you and join with all wishing you success and happiness in your new assignment.

Fr. Ken Letoile, OP

Dear friends,

I have accomplished "...the work you gave me to do." (JN 17:4) These words from Jesus that we heard two weeks ago provide a faith-filled context for my final Sunday among you. I am grateful to Fr. Luke Hoyt for inviting me, and for the opportunity to preach, celebrate the sacraments and provide pastoral care in your vibrant, growing Dominican parish. During this time, I became acutely aware that the parochial vicar's role should be filled by a younger friar who is able to relate to the youth, understand and use technology and bring peer support to your gifted and capable pastor. Welcome Fr. Philip Nolan, OP to this great 1st assignment! I would like to thank the friars I lived with, Fathers Frank, Leo and Luke for creating a harmonious, supportive and fun Dominican community. I also wish to thank Barbara Mackin, Joanna O'Connor and Eileen Bruehl, Roseanne Graj, Roxanne Surace and Joe DeSanctis for their dedicated service in the many ways they assisted in my various duties.

I also wish to thank all of you for your encouragement and support, especially those with whom I worked in altar server team, shut-in ministry and convert catechesis.

I begin a new assignment to our seminary the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, DC (my contact info is below). I hope there to be a resource for our many vocations and to represent the importance of being a member of the Order of Preachers in a parish setting. I promise to pray for the continued growth and flourishing of Holy Innocents and I humbly ask a remembrance in your prayers. Thank you for helping me to complete the work the Lord gave me to do.
